TRAGIC SUICIDE OF CHARLES S. KILLALEE

Took Poison at Brown Springs, Sedalia, While Laboring Under the Delusion That His Sweetheart in St. Louis Had Forsaken Him.

The hallucination, having its origin in opened the package of poison and emptied in health, what his sweetheart, Miss Julia. It into his mouth.

Held Her Photograph. Connelly, a pretty St. Louis girl, and forsaken him caused the suicide, near Sedalla, Mo., yesterday, of Charles S. Killalee of St. Louis. He swallowed the contents of a package of strychnine, and then threw himself into Flat Creek. He was dragged from the water and taken to Sedalia, where he died shortly after being carried into the office of a physician.

Miss Connelly is employed at No. 6 Forest Park terrace, in the household of James H. Allen, president of the Allen-West Commission Company. She appeared to be greatly grieved by the news of Killalee's suicide, and said that he had no reason for thinking that she had forsaken him. Only last Friday she saw him off at the station when he went to Sedalia.

J. F. Killalee of No. 2226 South Jefferson avenue, a brother of the dead man, was seen last night just after his return from a visit to his sister, Mrs. Martin Whalen of No. 732 North Sixth street, East St. Louis. He said: "My brother went to see Mrs. Whalen last Friday. He told her he was going to leave for Denver the next morning in company with Frank Schultz, who said he was a druggist on Olive street, and a man named Murray, formerly a motorman on the Grand avenue line.

"Charley claimed to have $800 with him, with which he intended to start a grocery "I am not convinced that he committed suicide. I shall go to Sedalia Thursday morning, attend the inquest and make an investigation. I will not say I suspect foul play; his death may have been the result of an accident." Killalee was for some time a clerk in the St. Louis Post Office. A year or more ago, on account of ill health, he secured a po-sition as conductor on the Grand avenue division of the St. Louis Transit Company. He remained in the employ of the company when the strike was declared on May 8, but on the first day of the strike, in attempting to take a car out, was shot at near the sheds, the bullet plercing his coat The next day he was dragged from his car and so severely beaten that he had to be taken to St. John's Hospital, where he

After his recovery from these wounds he went to Louisville in the hope of securing employment. Soon after he reached that city he became very til, and for some time lay at the point of death in his boarding-house, No. 728 West Jefferson street, where a serious operation had been performed. His physician, at his request, telegraphed to Miss Connelly the news of his condition, and she went to see him, remaining in Louis-ville for three days. Her visit was the turning point in his illness, and whereas at the time of her arrival he was not expected to live ten hours, when she left he was on the road to recovery. He continued to improve, and after a time returned to St. Louis, where he remained until last Friday night. Then he went to Sedalia, his sweet-

Killalee began to drink hard after he reached Sedalla. From his statements to those who went to his aid after he had taken the poison, and also from statements made last night by his friends in St. Louis, he had not, until a fortnight ago, even known the taste of liquor.

Ever since the strike drove him from his position in St. Louis, Kilialee had been nt. Drink added further to it. Then he began to imagine that his sweetheart had forsaken him, and, with that thought in mind, determined to kill himself. He purchased a quantity of strychnine yesterday morning, and for two or three hours wandered about the streets, determined up-on death, but undecided as to the best place in which to meet it. Shortly after noon his mind was made up. He boarded an electric car and rode to Brown Springs, a short distance out of town. He wandered about for a short while and then sat down in a shady and secluded spot on the bark of Flat Creek. He took a picture of his sweetheart from his pocket and gazed at it long and tenderly. Then, still holding the picture before him, he

London, Aug. 15 .- (Copyright, 1900, by W. R. Hearst.)-A petition is being circulated here, in the clubs and salons of the metropolis, and in country houses, especially among military men, requesting the Queen, through the Home Secretary, to grant a free pardon to ex-Major Kenneth Murchison of the Royal Artillery, who has just been brought home from Mafeking to undergo a sentence of penal servitude for The Prince of Wales has interceded with

The offense for which Murchison, who belongs to one of the best families of Scotland, was condemned to perpetual imprisonment was the killing of a newspaper correspondent named Parslow during the siege of Mafeking, under circumstances of great Parslow, while drunk, gressly insulted the Major at the table d'hote at Riesle's Hotel, and followed him across the square, continuing to revile him, challenging him to fight and accusing him of cowardice. No one witnessed the actual killing, but Murchison says the journalist raised his hand to Everywhere on the Continent of Europe action of this kind would have met with the approval of the military authorities, but

Murchison was sentenced by court-martial to death as a murderer, his sentence being

In the petition to the Queen, stress is laid on the fact that although Murchison had retired from the army, at the time of the outbreak of the war he responded to the call for volunteers, that he behaved with conspicuous gallantry during the greater part of the Mafeking siege, being in command of the artillery, to which the town was mainly indebted for its defense, and Eloff captured the fort in which made no attempt to take advantage of the confusion to escape, but selzed a rifle and led the attack on the Boers, which culmi-nated in their surrender, after which he Had it not been for his killing of the drunken journalist he would have doubtless received military promotion, as well as the Order of the Bath, for his services, and under the circumstances the success of the petition to the grown on his behalf is pracson was confined after martial had sentenced him to death he free will to his prison cell.

when the Boer commander

de his rifle and returned of his own commuted to penal servitude for life.

strike him, whereupon he shot him dead,

SPECIAL BY CABLE.

the Queen for Murchison.

provocation.

WALES ASKS HIS QUEEN-MOTHER

Soldier Sentenced to Penal Servitude for Life for Killing a Newspaper Man-Was a Hero of Mafeking.

Held Her Photograph.

In a moment all the agonies of strychnine poisoning were torturing his body. He gritted his teeth until the ename! Was broken, and clinched his fingers until the nails dug into the flesh, and the picture of the girl he loved crumpled in his grasp. Then he threw himself into the creek, the picture, crinkled and torn, still grasped tightly in his hand.

The rescuers were Clarence Alcom, a Sedalla fireman, and Frank Schultz, Jr., a traveling salesman, living in St. Louis. They had been walking near the creek when they heard Killalee's groans. Both men started in the direction of the sounds, and reached the spot about the same time.

As soon as they had dragged Killalee from the water, one of them ran to stop a car that was coming.

Killalee, suffering agonies from the poison, was carried up the bank and to the car.

On the way to Sedalla, Killalee said, son, was carried up the bank and to the car.

On the way to Sedalla, Killalee said, between his groans, that he had attempted suicide because his sweetheart had forsaken him. He said he had formerly been an employe of the transit company, and had been drinking for a fortnight, never having tasted liquor previous to that time. He said he had a brother, Fred J. Killalee, living in St. Louis, He said he was a member of Holy Name Council, No. 40, Knights of Father Mathew, and of the Knights and Ladies of Security, both St. Louis lodges. He refused to tell the name of his sweetheart.

of his sweetheart.

The car was stopped at the first doctor's office that was reached, and Kilialee, dying and still suffering agonies, was carried into the office. The physician administered antidotes, but the case was hopeless, and within an hour after he had taken the drug Kilialee was dead. His body was removed to Hillis's undertaking establishment, to await the decision of the Coroner at the inquest to be held to-day, and instructions from relatives.

Miss Connelly Was Grieved.

Miss Connelly Was Grieved.

Miss Connelly did not hear of the suicide until informed of it by a Republic reporter

Wrote for Sweetheart's Picture. "I had not seen Mr. Killalee since the first day of the strike, when he came by here in the afternoon, after unsuccessfully here in the afternoon, after unsuccessfully trying to run a car out, and showed me a bullet hole in his sleeve which he had re-ceived that morning. The next day he was badly beaten by strikers, and remained in St. John's Hospital under treatment eight days. "After he left here he went to Louisville "After he left here he went to Louisville and on June 15 wrote me from that place asking me to get a picture of my sister which he had had enlarged, and take care of it for him. 'It is my only treasure,' he wrote. I sent to his boarding-house, No. 2 North Jefferson avenue, and got the picture. I never heard from him after that, except through my sister.

"He was a devout Catholic, and I never thought he would even think of suicide. I never knew him to be a drinking man; in fact, I considered him strictly abstemious. Mr. Killalee was about 24 years old, and I think he came here from near Sedalla."

Killalee had very little money in his pockets when his clothes were searched after his death.

tically assured, the Prince of Wales having warmly interested himself in the case.

OBJECT SERIOUSLY.

Topeka Folks Protest Against

Using Beer to Clean City Hall.

from time to time and, in accordance with law, must be spilled into the street. Rather than waste this liquid, it is proposed to use it in making the new brick walls shine for the dedication ceremonies.

The State Temperance Union, the W. C. T. U. and other temperance organizations declare that such a procedure will be an outrage. Rather than permit it they threaten to go to the city prison and foreibly turn the nasty stuff into the streets.

SPEECHES TILL SATURDAY.

Attorneys Presenting Arguments

in the Goebel Case.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 15.—Three speeches have been made and a fourth is under way in the Powers trial. All have been good in the Powers trial. All have been good speeches.

The jury have been so impassive that the closest observer has not been able to discover the drift of their sympathles.

Victor Bradley will conclude his speech to-morrow, followed by W. C. Owens for the defense and B. B. Golden for the prosecution and J. H. Tinsley for the defense. Colonel T. C. Campbell will speak Friday morning, followed by former Governor Brown, and Commonwealth Attorney Franklin will close Friday night or Saturday morning.

urday morning.

That is the plan to-night, and the Youtsey case will be called and the selection of a jury will begin Saturday.

Concordia, Kas., Aug. 15.—The Fifth District Democratic Convention to-day unanimously nominated H. D. Vincent for Congress, Vincent had already been nominated by the Populists.

Professor Bowle Nominated.

Selma, Ala., Aug. 15.—Professor Sidney J. Bowie was unanimously nominated by the Democrats of the Fourth Congressional District here to-day.

TO PARDON MAJOR MURCHISON.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

HANNA'S HARD TIME IN RAISING FUNDS.

Former Contributors, in Many Instances, Refuse Checks This Year.

BRYAN IS NOT FEARED.

Bankers in New York, Philadelphia and Boston Are Not Interested in the Republican Appeals for Cash.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, Aug. 15 .- Efforts of the Republican campaign managers to raise funds for the expenses of the canvass for McKinley and Roosevelt have thus far been flat fallures in every direction, The Republican National Committee in 1896 expended in its literary bureau only for the combatting of the "isms" in the Chicago platform and the education of voters, $709,-000. This was expended for printing and distributing tracts, pamphlets, etc.

Thus far the Republican campaign is being run on premissory notes. No money is coming in. A prominent business man downtown, who was interested in McKinley's nomination and election in 1896, several days ago sent to forty or fifty of his business friends who in the last campaign made liberal contributions and invited them to send him checks. Few of them responded favorably, and one of them who contributed $2,500 in 1896, replied, saying in substance: "Four years ago I gave you a check for

$2,500 because I believed there was danger of the free silver doctrine of Mr. Bryan prevailing. There is no such danger now. I enclose $50."

Senator Hanna a few days ago entered the office of the executive head of one of the largest insurance companies in this city. These companies have the custody of millions of dollars, invested in real estate, bonds and mortgages. As Senator Hanna entered the president of the company said: Demand Anticipated. "Ah, Mr. Hanna, I know what you are coming for. You are coming for money. It

These two incidents illustrate the feeling of the business community in this city regarding campaign contributions. Men interested in financial institutions and large enterprises believe there is no denger of the election of Bryan. In the meantime the Republican campaign is lagging.

The same reluctance about giving money to the Republican campaign prevails in Boston and Philadelphia. The Boston bankers in 1896 gave Senator Hanna's committee nearly $50,000. Philadelphia contributed about $700,000.

the gravest apprehensions.

Although Senator Hanna has been at his desk at headquarters every day this week, he has been unable to give that attention that marked his vigorous work at the organization of the headquarters. He was compelled to day to give the was compelled to-day to give up work for sev compelled to-day to give up work for several hours, although engagements were pressing. This was due to a recurrence of the heart trouble which caused such alarm among Mr. Hanna's friends a year ago, and on which were based the numerous reports preceding the National Convention at Philadelphia that he would retire from the National Committee. The death of Collis P. Huntington also afected Senator Hanna. It was said to-night by one of the national chairman's intimate campaign associates that no one would be surprised if Mr. Hanna were compelled to give up the active di-rection of the campaign and seek complete What the effect of this would be no one is able to foresee. It would necessitate the election of a new chairman of the Executive Committee and changes in many party ar-

Senator Hanna's threatened Illness is said to be due in part to the unpromising man-ner in which the campaign is opening, plac-ing on him many burdens and much work that he expected to avoid. He had divided up the work among bureaus and subcom-mittees in such a way that he had few matters of detail to attend to. This subdivision has not worked well, and on top of that has developed the most sur-prising apathy and indifference to appeals for assistance by business men known since the campaign of 1892.

RETURNING TO LINCOLN.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Are En Route Home-Incidents at the Station. Chicago, Aug. 15.—Mr. Bryan, accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and their son, left to-night for Lincoln, via the Rock Island road. The train is due at Mr. Bryan's home at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

There was no demonstration at the depot, Mr. Bryan coming to the depot unattended. There was some excitement in the Bryan family circle when the head of the Bryan family circle when the head of the house attempted to check his basgage and found that he had lost his mileage book and had no ticket to show the baggage agent.

After a search through all his pockets and through his value and that of his wife, Mr. Bryan, with just a few minutes to spare, hurried to the ticket office and to spare, hurried to the ticket office and purchased new tickets, the baggageman in the meantime checking the baggage on the strength of Mr. Bryan's rush for the ticket REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Topeka, Kas., Aug. 15.—The temperance people of Topeka, and of Kansas for that matter, are in a state of excitement. The city is just completing a fine City Hall and auditorium, which is to be opened with ceremonies early in September.

The city administration has decided to slick up the new brick structure a little, and for this purpose will use a lot of stale beer stored at the police station, for washing the walls of the new building. This stale beer has been selzed in liquor joints from time to time and, in accordance with law, must be spilled into the street. Rather

MACOMB JOLLIFIES.

Pleased by the Decision to Locate Western Illinois Normal There. EPPUBLIC SPECIAL.

IFPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Macomb, Ill., Aug. 15.—Macomb is holding a grand jollification to-night over the location here of the Western Illinois State Normal School, and the din is augmented by wery instrument from which a noise can be procured.

The band, accompanied by a large crowd of citizens, went to the train to meet the The band, accompanied by a large crowd of citizens, went to the train to meet the delegation, which returned this evening, ex-cepting Judge Shermand and C. V. Chander, who had returned by another route and arrived a few hours earlier. They were heartily congratulated on their great fight by the business men and citizens, and a general rejoicing ensued.

The trustees will be here Monday and select a steep of the second the lect a site from the six or eight offered, and it is expected that ground will be broken for the building before snow files.

SENSATION AT PANA.

Farmer Confesses to Being One of a Gang of Horse Thieves. EPUBLIC SPECIAL

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Pana, Ill., Aug. 15.—During the past two months many horses have been stolen in this vicinity, and all efforts to locate the culprits have been unsuccessful. This afternoon Franklin McLean, a farmer, residing near this city, was apprehended by a vigilance committee and to-night confessed that he was implicated in the thefts, and that it was the intention of the "gang" to purloin several more animals and market them at Terre Haute. Several men who have hitherto borne good reputations are implicated.

C. & A. Officials at Odessa.

C. & A. Officials at Odessa.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL,
Odessa, Mo., Aug. 15.—The following officials of the Chicago and Alton made a tour of inspection of this city to-day in carriages, accompanied by several of the leading citizens: F. A. Wann, general freight agent; W. E. Gray, general superintendent; C. Price, purchasing agent; G.
Charleton, general passenger agent, and J. Charleton, general passenger agent, and C. A. King, traveling freight agent.

RUSSIAN GENERAL KILLED BY THE PRICK OF A PIN.

He Died on a Train-Stranger Who Wounded Him Believed to Be an Anarchist—Autopsy Revealed Violent Poison -Prince and Princess Witnesses.

SPECIAL BY CABLE. Berlin, Aug. 15,-(Copyright, 1900, by W. R. Hearst.)-Prince and Princess Apalinoff have just passed through this city on their way back to St. Petersburg, in response to an urgent summons from the Russian Government, which reached them at Paris.

Their testimony is needed in connection with the mysterious murder of General Pantegeleff, second in command of the Imperial Gendarmerie, who met death under extraordinary circumstances a fortnight ago while traveling with them from St. Petersburg toward the German frontier.

The General and an exceedingly good ooking and well-dressed young stranger were seated opposite the Prince and Princess in the railroad carriage. All four got into conversation during the course of the journey. After it had become dusk and before the lamps were lighted, the stranger rose gather abruptly from his seat and as he did so in some way pricked his neighbor's wrist in such a manner as to call forth an exclamation on the part of the General.

The stranger was profuse in his apologles and ascribed the prick to his scarf pin, which he had stuck in his sleeve after using it to cut the pages of a book.

At the next stop of the train he alighted and disappeared.

little to one side, it was discovered that he was dead. It was at first believed that the General had succumbed to heart failure. and it was not until the auttopsy took place that the dectors found, first of all, the mark of a pin or needle prick, the skin around it being black and "angry," and subsequently discovered traces of a very violent poison, evidently communicated by means of the pin or needle. The Prince and Princess learned of the

An hour later, when another passenge entered and asked the General to move a result of the autopsy early last week, and, remembering the incident of the pin prick, at once notified the Russian Embassy. Several arrests have been made in con nection with the crime, which is ascribed to the anarchist movement in Russia, for anarchists and nihilists there are one and the same thing.

Prince and Princess Apalinoff are needed at St. Petersburg to identify their fellow traveler and, like the authorities here, they do not hesitate to express their perturba tion at this new and alarming form of an archist assassination. For, while it may be posible to protect oneself from bullets, knives and bombs, it is difficult to ward off mere pin pricks of a deadly poisonous

WHAT ONE PREACHER DID IN ONE HOUR.

The Rev. R. H. Becker Married Three Couples and Ate Three Suppers in That Time.

BEATS ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS.

Pastor of St. Paul's German Free Protestant Church at Belleville Demonstrates His Ability to

About 6 o'clock the Reverend Mr. Becker went to the home of Miss Diehmann on South Jackson street, where preparations for the wedding had been made, and entered, like Monte Cristo, on schedule time. Calmly, the clergyman read the simple wedding services of his denomination and made the couple man and wife in exactly the time he had at his disposal. Then he strode to the table with the wedding party and participated in the feast without undue haste. Excusing himself at precisely the time he had planned, he leisurely strolled to the home of Mrs. Mary Baumann on East Main street, and married her daughter, Miss Hannah Baumann, to Mr. Walter Ehret, who is a son of Supervisor Ehret. Up to this time the programme had de reloped as he had prearranged, and when the preacher sat down to eat his second vedding supper at the Baumann home he was still on time.

But in the course of the collation he became involved in an interesting conversation with a guest, and when he chanced to glance at a clock which was a wedding present he was horrified to see that he had present he was horrified to see that he had outstayed his time by ten minutes. So he hastily excused himself and walked swiftly to the residence of former Sheriff Phillip Rhine, at No. 294 Jackson street.

As he entered the house rather precipitately he again glanced at a clock, in the reception hall, and to his surprise noticed that he was ten minutes before his schedule time. The only way that he could explain it was that the wedding present clock he had glanced at in the Baumann home was fast.

fast.

Then the Reverend Becker calmly spoke the words which made Miss Tillie Rhine the wife of Louis E. Wangelin. There were only a few friends and members of the immediate Au the clerkywife of Louis E. Wangelin. There were only a few friends and members of the immediate family at the wedding. As the clergyman spoke the concluding words of the third ceremony he heaved a deep sigh, for his duties were over. And as he sat at the third wedding supper the clock struck 7. Then he told the guests at the table how he had broken the record.

CAPTURED BY FUNSTON.

War Department Makes Public In teresting Letters.

Washington, Aug 15.—The War Department has made public the Filipino correspondence, captured some months ago by General Funston's command in Luzon. One of these is from Doctor Montague R. Leverson of Brooklyn, N. Y., to G. Apacible, in which the war with the Filipinos is characterized as piracy on the part of the in which the war with the Filipinos is characterized as piracy on the part of the United States. Doctor Leverson's correspondent is advised to bring about the capture of some official of the United States, who should then be put on trial before a council of war for piracy. He is also advised to have the Filipino Congress issue an address to the people of the United States calling attention to alleged violations by the United States of the usages of civilized warfare.

There is also a letter from W. G. St. Clair. editor of the Singapore Free Press, to Howard W. Bray, in wMch, after discussing conversations with Spencer Pratt, former United States Consul at Singapore, the writer asserts that Admiral Dewey's the writer asserts that Admiral Dewey's policy in the Philippines had been over-ruled by the military element at Manila, and that the Admiral was about to return to the United States, where he might be expected to enlighten the President as to

NOT A MEMBER OF LEAGUE. Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 15.—"I know Doctor Leverson well," said Franklin Pierce of New York, a delegate to the Anti-Imperialist Congress, now in session here, to-day, "and he is a kindly, cranky sort of a gentleman who is erratic to a degree. In other words he is a person for whom the anti-Imperialists of the country are not responsible. He is not a member of the league. sible. He is not a member of the league, He is an extremist, and when the league refused to sanction or indorse the stuff he wrote, he sent it out at his personal expense."

the facts and bring about conditions more

AMELIA RIVES WAS LOST.

Well-Known Authoress Wandered From Home in Her Illness.

Richmond Va., Aug. 15 .- A Charlottes Richmond, Va., Aug. 15.—A Charlottes-ville special says that the Princess Trou-betskey-Amelie Rives, the authoress, who has been suffering from a severe attack of nervous prostration, disappeared from her home at Castle Hill yesterday afternoon, and after search was found near an old pond at the foot of Peters Mountain, which figures in one of her stories. Her husband is at Castle Hill is at Castle Hill.

FARMERS RACE FOR POSITION IN MARKET.

John Lucks and Henry Semple Settle Dispute of Long Standing by Test of Speed.

SUGGESTION OF THEIR FRIEND.

After Wrangling for Months Over a Stand in Biddle Market, They Arrive at Peaceful Adjustment by Odd Method.

For several months John Lucks, a farm-This happy solution was the result of a joking suggestion made by a mutual friend. Lucks won the race and now holds the Tuesdays and Saturdays are the busiest shopping days at Biddle Market in summer. Then the place is so crowded with farmers the night before that only those who come early in the evening can obtain Thus, when this season began, Lucks managed to obtain possession of the disputed stand by coming very early in the evening. Semple complained to the market uthorities that he had occupied the stand all winter and considered that he had a But the rule is "first come, first served," and the stand fell always to the one who got there first. Sometimes it was Lucks and sometimes Semple, but this state of affairs did not suit either long. The penalty that the loser always had to pay was that he lost a conspicuous position and had to take a place where his sales were conspicuously smaller.

So the farmers resorted to all sorts of strategic means to maintain possession of the stand. Lucks engaged a lot of boys the stand. Lucks engaged a lot of boys about the market to pile boxes on the disputed ground. Thus he was able to obstruct his adversary and to hold the place until he came to the market. Interference from the market people, however, put a stop to this, and Semple adopted the method of sending his sons in early in the evening to hire a huckster's wason with which to fill the space until he arrived. When Lucks found this out he sent his hired man in earlier and did the same thing.

Meanwhile the farmers, who had formerly been civil to each other, became estranged

Meanwhile the farmers, who had formerly been civil to each other, became estranged and did not speak as they passed each other. They happened to meet in a saloon the other night after Lucks had won the coveted stand by coming in particularly early, and friends looked for trouble. But the developments were different from what was expected.

Some friends invited them to drink and suggested that they should submit their suggested that they should submit their difficulty to arbitration. This was not sat-isfactory. Then he laughingly suggested that as they lived about equally distant that as they lived about equally distant from the market they should race for the stand with their teams.

To the surprise of all those present the matter was arranged thus. So at 8 o'clock Monday night both men left their homes with loads of the same weight on their wagons and raced for the possession of the stand. At 1:45 on Tuesday morning Lucks drove into the stand and ten minutes later Semple arrived. He acknowledged Lucks the winner, and they shook hands for the first time in many months.

110 Help Wanted Ads In to-day's Republic.

WILL SELL DUES STAMPS.

Typographical Union's Plan for Recognition of Members.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 15.—At to-day's session of the International Typographical Union a committee on tripartite agreement was appointed. The object in view is the adoption of a uniform joint seal of the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union, the International Bookbinders' Union and the International Typographical Union.

The whole forenoon was taken up in fur The whole forenoon was taken up in further consideration of the report of the Committee on Laws. The most important proposition adopted calls for the preparation and sale by the secretary-treasurer to subordinate unions, through the proper officers, at a face value equal to the monthly percapita tax, of the International Typographical Union adhesive stamps, and working cards with stamps of equal value printed thereon, to be known as international dues stamp and working cards.

thereon, to be known as international dues stamp and working cards.

By this system the standing of individual members will always be known and rights will be accorded to conform with the showing indicated by the working card or stamps in possession of the various mem-Another important proposition provides that money in the defense fund shall be drawn on only for sustaining legal strikes or lockouts of subordinate or affiliated unions and for the payment of expenses of effects or organizers. This proposition is to officers or organizers. This proposition is to become operative only in case of a favorable referendum vote of yesterday's proposition o increase the revenue.

Among the propositions from the Law Committee adopted this afternoon were the Committee adopted this afternoon were the following:

"All machine tenders shall be members of the I. T. U."

"Local unions are empowered to prohibit employers from joining the union if they so desire" The Tripartite Committee did nothing fur-ther to-night than to organize.

MR. HUNTINGTON'S BODY IN NEW YORK,

Fast Time Made From the Dead Railroad King's Summer Lodge.

FUNERAL OCCURS THURSDAY.

Services Will Be Held at the Fifth

Avenue Home and Will Be Private - Deceased Left a Will.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Aug. 15.-There arrived this evening at the Grand Central Station a special train bearing the body of Collis P. Huntington, the Napoleon of the railroad world, who died Monday night in his lodge in the Adirondacks. Funeral services will be held Thursday in his mansion at Fifth avenue and Fifty-seventh street.

It is expected that Mr. Huntington's nephew, H. E. Huntington, who is hurrying from Texas on a special train, will arrive here to-morrow night. There had been talk of postponing the funeral until the arrival of the millionaire's adopted daughter, the Princess von Hatzfelt, who sailed to-day for this port from Liverpool. This plan, however, was found to be impracticable. Following the interment in the magnificent mausoleum in Woodlawn Cemetery will come the probating of Mr. Hunting ton's will, for it was learned to-day that there is a will. The financial world is talking of Mr Huntington's successor. The names of H. E. Huntington and Charles H. Tweed, the confidential adviser of the railroad builder, were mentioned. No special over the New York railroads ever made better time than the train which bore the body of Mr. Huntington. It con-sisted of the same cars in which, a week ago yesterday, the railroad king traveled to his lodge on Raquette Lake, where he died. They were the parlor cars Oneonta I and Oneonta II and a baggage car. Mr. Huntington's body was brought early this morning to the station, Durant, on the steamer Oneonta from the mountain lodge. The special train left Durant at twenty

The special train left Durant at twenty minutes past 8 o'clock and proceeded to Clear Water, where a special engine was attached. The train was at Utica at II o'clock and from there sped to this city. The body, which was in the Oneonta II, rested in a plain black casket which an undertaker had brought from Utica.

In the party which accompanied it were Mrs. Huntington, Mrs. and Mrs. Archer M. Huntington, Miss C. M. Campbell, a friend of the elder Mrs. Huntington; Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield Hillhouse and Doctor W. D. Coles. Mr. and Mrs. Archer M. Huntington had been at Bugle Lake only a few miles from Raquette Lake, but owing to the fact that the telegraph and telephone lines had been broken, it had been impossible to promptly communicate the news of Mr. Huntington's death to them. They reached Raquette Lake Tuesday night. Mrs. Hillhouse is Mr. Huntington's sister.

Train Reaches New York.

Numerous attendants were awaiting the Numerous attendants were awaiting the arrival of the train when it reached the Grand Central Station here at twenty-five minutes to 5 o'clock. The coffin was lifted out of one of the car windows and carried on the shoulders of six undertaker's assistants to a hearse and then conveyed to the Fifth avenue home.

George E. Miles, one of Mr. Huntington's secretaries, who was of the party that accompanied the body to this city, gave some hitherto unpublished details of the death of the president of the Southern Pactific.

Mr. Huntington and members of his family had been playing whist Monday night in Mr. Huntington and members or his family had been playing whist Monday night in the main building of Pine Knot Camp.

Mr. Huntington went to his room at 11 o'clock and was there seized with a violent fit of coughing. He frequently had these attacks, and Mrs. Huntington administered a small quantity of whisky. He seemed relieved temporarily, and then was taken with a challing small.

a choking spell.

"I am very, very ill," were his last words.

He became unconscious after that and died of heart disease before medical aid could reach him. Mrs. Huntington, Miss Campbell and Mrs. Miles were present at his deathbed

No definite ararngements have as yet been made for the funeral services. The funeral, which will be private, will take place at 11 o'clock in the morning. Services probably will be held in the large east room of the house in which Mr. Huntington's body now lies.

Many messages of condolence were re-ceived to-day at the office in the Mills building, and also at the house. Among those who sent expressions of their personal sorrow were Senator Thomas C. Platt, Ed-ward M. Searles, Booker T. Washington and I. Kruttschitt. Charles H. Tweed, in response to an inquiry, said:

Mr. Huntington Left a Will. "I cannot talk about the matter of the will until after the funeral, but you will be safe in assuming that there is a will."
"Was the stability of his investments, in the event of his death, made secure by formal provision during his lifetime?"
"Provision was made against his holdings "Provision was made against his holdings being thrown upon the market. "It is reported that you are likely to suc reced Mr. Huntington as the head of the Southern Pacific."

"No; Mr. Huntington, nephew of Mr. C. P. Huntington, is the first vice president of the company; I am the second vice president. But all that is matter for future arrangement."

Mr. Tweed would give no estimate of the value of Mr. Huntington's estate, which is variously said to be worth from $27,000,000 to $82,000,000.

It developed to-day that Mr. Huntington

It developed to-day that Mr. Huntington was the person who at the time of the great vogue of Edwin Markham's "Man With the Hoe" had offered $700 in prizes for poems on "The Man Without the Hose."

More than a thousand peems on the subject were submitted, and first, second and third prizes were awarded. Mr. Huntington believed in the dignity of labor, and he thought the philosophy of Mr. Markham's poem was harmful.

There was a story, which lacks verification, that only shortly before his death, Mr. Huntington agreed to give $1,000,000 to the Republican campaign fund.

There was general mourning to-day at Newport News, Va., where Mr. Huntington's great ship yard is situated. A committee of one hundred and fifty citizens was appointed to arrange for a commemorative service. The ship yards will be closed and all business suspended there on the day of the funeral.

A floral tribute will be sent to New York.

he funeral.

A floral tribute will be sent to New York.

CAPTAIN MURPHY KILLED.

He Commanded a Company of Thirty-Ninth Infantry.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Washington, Aug. 15.—A cablegram was received at the War Department to-day saying that Captain William L. Murphy, Thirty-ninth United States Volunteer Infantry (First Lieutenant Twenty-fourth United States Infantry), was killed near Fanauan yesterday. Captain Murphy was born in Iowa and was appointed from that State to the Mill-tary Academy. He was made a Second Lieutenant of the Twenty-fourth Infantry April 26, 1898, and a First Lieutenant in the April 26, 1898, and a First Lieutenant in the same regiment March 2, 1899; was appointed Captain of the Thirty-ninth United States Volunteer Infantry August 17, 1899, and was with his regiment in the Philippines.

During the Spanish-American War Captain Murphy served with his regiment in the Santiago campaign, and was recommended for bravery at the battle of Santiago.

Southwestern Cattlemen's Pienic.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Kingman, Kas., Aug. 15.—The first day's entertainment of the second annual picnic of the cattlemen of the Southwest proved highly gratifying to not only the 15,000 visitors to Kingman, but to the management of the affair. Major W. L. Brown brought in the band of Ponca Indians, accompanied by a score of the cowboys from the W. L. W. ranch this morning, and a grand parade of all the cowboys and their lady escorts was the feature of the forenoon. This afternoon the riders and their friends went to a pasture east of town for the cattle-roping contests. The Ponca Indians entertained the visitors with native dancing. To-morrow they will give the green corn dance in the original, such as they have heretofore indulged in only when among their own people. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

A CHILDISH COSTUME.

One of the New and Becoming Frocks for a Young Miss.

Pink and white foulard is here elaborately rimmed with point de Paris lace and insertion.
It is made with a lining body, which closes in the center front, and is simply adjusted with shoulder and under-arm adjusted with shoulder and seams.

The back is fitted smooth across the shoulders with slight fullness at the center, drawn down in tiny plaits.

The front plastron of white mousseline de soie is permanently attached to the right lining and fastens invisibly on the left side.

The fronts are slightly bloused over a soft belt of pink ribbon, which is tied in a bow at the left side.

The collar forms broad revers, which out-line the plastron and are finished with a frill of lace, surmounted by three bands of nsertion.

The short sleeves are shaped with upper and under portions, having slight fullness at the shoulders. The lower edge is trimmed with lace.

The neck is slightly low, giving a delightfully cool effect to the attractive little party dress.

The skirt is shaped with five gores, fitting smoothly around the front and over the hips, with the fullness arranged in gathers at the back.

The straight flounce is trimmed with three rows of insertion, and the skirt above the flounce is decorated in the same manner.

Lovely frocks in this mode may be fashioned from Swiss, organdle, India silk, dimity, or poplin, with velvet, ribbon, silk, lace or embroidered batiste as trimming.
To make the dress for a girl 8 years will require three and one-half yards of thirtysix-inch material. The pattern, No. 8948, is cut in sizes for girls 6, 8, 10 and 12 years.

THE REPUBLIC PATTERN COUPON ENTITLING TO ONE PATTERN.

Cut this out, fill in with age, name and address, and mail it with 10 cents for each pattern wanted to THE PAT-

ANY SIZE OF NO. 8043.

PUBLIC. No. 8043. Price 19 cents.....years.

Any one wishing the latest style patterns may obtain them by calling at ROOM 20, Second Floor, Repubic Building, Seven th and Olive.

Republican County Ticket.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Buffalo, Mo., Aug. 15.-The Republicans of Dallas County met in convention to-day and Dailas County met in convention to-day and nominated the following county ticket: Representative, H. Edmonson; Prosecuting Attorney, W. C. Hawkins; Collector, F. C. Wilson; Sheriff, J. A. Bonner; Treasuer, T. J. Wilkinson; Assessor, J. W. Engle; Surveyor, J. M. Brackley; Coroner, W. M. White; County Court Judge, Northern District, R. Smith; County Judge Southern District, W. L. Pittman.

Prohibitionists' New Nominee.

Prohibitionists' New Nomisee.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Marion, Ill., Aug. 15.—The Reverend Jos.

J. Harris of this city has been nominated for Lieutenant Governor on the Prohibition ticket. This nomination is occasioned by the withdrawal of the Reverend John A. Henderson of Sparta, who unexpectedly removes from the State. Mr. Harris was born in Ohio in 1853. He has been pastor of several chuches of the Christians' or Disciples Brotherhood in Southern Illinois, and is widely known in this section of Libnois.

SYRUP-FIGS Acts Pleasantly and Promptly.

Cleanses the System Gently and Effectually when bilious or costive.

Presents in the most acceptable form the laxative principles of plants, known to act most beneficially.

TO GET ITS BENEFICIAL EFFECTS

BUY THE GENUINE - MANFO. BY CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUPCO SAM FRANCISCO, CAL. LOUISVILLE, NY. NEW YORK, MY

For sale by druggists - price 504 per bettle.

Miss Connelly did not hear of the suicide until informed of it by a Republic reporter last night.

"I am sure that there must have been some mistake about what Mr. Killalee said as to my having forsaken him," she said.
"We were the best of friends, and only last Friday night I met him at Union Station to bid him good-by when he was going to Sedalia. I had not heard from him since, but supposed he had found employment and would write as soon as he found time. I had no suspicion that he contemplated taking his life, and the news is a terrible shock to me.

"Mr. Killalee has a brother in St. Louis and he also has other relatives. The poor man must have been out of his mind if he said or intimated that there had been any quarrel between us. We were the best of friends, just as we had been for a year or more. I had not chided him for bad habits, as he was a most exemplary young man."

Miss Connelly asked a number of questions concerning the suicide and the disposition of the body, and gave every evidence of grief.

Mrs. George F. Eaton, a sister of Miss Demand Anticipated.

"Ah, Mr. Hanna, I know what you are coming for Xou are coming for remained under treatment for eight days. Ill in Louisville. Cope With Emergencies. of grief.

Mrs. George F. Eaton, a sister of Miss Connelly, living at No. 1828A North Twenty-second street, said that she knew of no quarrel whatever between her sister and Killalee, who had been sweethearts ever since they had met at a social gathering a war are The Reverend R. H. Becker of Belleville, er, who lives about twelve miles out on Ill., pastor of the St. Paul's German Free the St. Charles Rock road, and Henry Protestant Church, broke all previous rec-Semple, who has a farm near Clifton yesterday by marrying three Heights, have hotly contested each other's SENATOR HANNA MAY RETIRE. couples in their homes at Belleville and since they had met at a social gathering a year ago.

"In the latter part of June," she said, "Mr. Killalee was very ill in Louisville, and my sister went over there on receipt of a telegram from his physician saying he could not live. As the case appeared to be hopeless, and we could not find his relatives in St. Louis, she had me go to an undertaker and make arrangements for the shipment of his body to St. Louis in the event of his claims to a stand in the Biddle Market, at eating three wedding suppers in one hour. Thirteenth and O'Fallon streets. The dis-Campaign Has Brought on Recur-The Reverend Mr. Becker is proud of both puted stand had always fallen to the farm. records, and the three couples share his rence of Heart Trouble. er who arrived first and took possession. pride. The other participants in the triple REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Aug. 15.—To add to the perplexities of the Republican campaign managers, Senator Hanna's health is causing his associates on the National Committee Both Lucks and Semple considered this event were Misses Emma Dichmann, Hanplan unsatisfactory and resorted to all nah Baumann and Tillie Rhine, and Messrs. sorts of means to secure individual control. Jacob Miller, Walter Ehret and Louis E. On Monday night they decided to settle the death. She remained in Louisville three days, at the expiration of which time Mr. Killalee was so greatly improved that she returned home. question by running a race with their teams from their homes to the market.